

Hi Lyle - I'm writing to you regarding the forced molting of layer hens. I strongly support the petition to ban this cruel action (docket 98P-0203/CP). Have you ever seen the conditions in which these animals live? Isn't it bad enough that they're stuffed into crowded cages? Must they be emotionally and physically distressed by molting - The morality of the people involved in this abuse frightens me; Why is it that animals must suffer needlessly? Please find it in your heart to do whatever you can to help these poor creatures. —Thank you for your time & consideration in this matter.
